York County Soccer Hall of Fame Announces 2026 Inductee Nick Schuermann

ROCK HILL, S.C. – The York County Soccer Hall of Fame announces Nick Schuermann as a member of its 2026 induction class, honoring a career defined by elite performance, leadership, academic achievement and continued service to the game. Schuermann is the third of five individuals to be inducted in 2026, a class whose contributions have significantly impacted the growth and success of soccer throughout York County and beyond.

A standout at Wofford College, Schuermann started every match of his collegiate career while serving as a three-year team captain. His accomplishments included NSCAA Third Team All-American honors, NSCAA First Team Scholar All-American recognition, All-Southern Conference honors, and helping lead Wofford to both Southern Conference championships and the program's first NCAA Division I Tournament appearance in school history.

Before college, Schuermann starred at Fort Mill High School as a four-year starter and three-year captain, earning multiple All-State and All-Region honors. Following his playing career, he returned to coach at Fort Mill, contributing to a state championship program.

Tickets are on sale for the York County Soccer Hall of Fame Induction Banquet, Sept. 24, 6-9 p.m., at the Courtyard by Marriott in Fort Mill, S.C. Tickets may be purchased at yorkcountysoccerHOF.com.

The 2026 York County Soccer Hall of Fame Induction Banquet is presented by Charlotte Independence Soccer Club. Sponsors include Rugs.com, Dilling Plumbing, and Blue Rose Pottery.
